

Plan to attend Dec.

7

We Help.
We Heal.
We Hope.

Safe Passage's major fundraiser
Walhill Farm,
Batesville
9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

*Brunch, live auction
(Oregon and Arizona
trips, pizza party,
service package, etc.),
raffle, speaker and beautifully decorated tables.*

$60 a ticket. Call 812-933-1990 to reserve a spot or go to our website at www.safepassageinc.org and click on donate.

Nicole Kass and Irina Sorrells, both Safe Place Sexual Assault and Preventionists, create better awareness at a recent Madison Hispanic Festival using the new SEI REMC funded tablecloths.

REMC grant helps with better awareness

Safe Passage was one of 35 nonprofits from 7 counties to receive grant funding from Southeastern Indiana REMC.

This sixth disbursement of Operation RoundUp funds totaled $77,181. The grant money is made possible because REMC members may round up their monthly electric bills to the nearest dollar amount. "The most any member will give in a year is $6," said marketing director Barry Lauber. Since the program's inception, "over $375,000 has been given out." Safe Passage applied for special event equipment funding to create better awareness of services. Tablecloths with logos were purchased from a Ripley County business, and a logo pop-up tent from a Brookville business was

Meet our new staff member

Name: Chloe Bachus

Title:Prevention

Coordinator, Franklin Co.

Family: Wife to John and mama to three kiddos, Hudson (7), Catalina (2), and Elinor (4 months)

Formerly: (job) Stay at home mom for three years and prior to that I was a preschool teacher at St. Michael's School

What are you most looking forward to in your new role? I am most excited to just be around the youth in the school setting and to provide them with useful tools to use throughout their lives.

Interesting fact: I enjoy the great outdoors whether it's hiking trails, running on a back road, boating on Brookville lake, or just enjoying dinner outside with my family. The fresh air is my best medicine.

also bought with the $1838 grant. The remaining funds were for promotional giveaways.

SEI REMC leaders present Susan Westmeyer with Safe Passage a check from their Operation Round Up program.

#

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

Did you know this past year...

- Safe Passage helped more than 1220 victims in 2018

- Served 11,000+ meals in shelter
- Drove more than 22,000 miles caring for clients and community needs
- Presented 370 Prevention programs to schools in the area
- Provided 100+ fresh start baskets to women starting over

We couldn't do any of this without your support!

So Thankful...

Hill-Rom's Customer Service Dept. celebrated customer service week by paying it forward and collected a huge amount of canned, food and paper products to give to Safe Passage for our shelter.